

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

NO. 24-CR-10121-FDS

v.

DANIEL LOUGHMAN, et al.,
Defendants.

ORDER ON EXCLUDABLE DELAY

KELLEY, U.S.M.J.

A final status conference was scheduled for today, June 23, 2025. Defendants request an additional date; it is possible that some last discovery needs to be produced to one defendant and the other defendants are still preparing the case. A further final status conference is scheduled for August 4, 2025, at 11:00 a.m. The parties were cautioned that on that date the case is expected to be transferred to the district court.

The Court finds that the interests of justice in this case, i.e., to allow the parties time to prepare the case for trial or other disposition, outweigh the best interests of the public and defendants for a trial within seventy days of the date of indictment. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that, pursuant to the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the Clerk of this Court enter excludable time for the period from June 23, 2025, up to and including August 4, 2025.¹

¹ The parties are hereby advised that under the provisions of Rule 2(b) of the Rules for United States Magistrates in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, any party may move for reconsideration by a district judge of the determination(s) and order(s) set forth herein within fourteen (14) days after receipt of a copy of this order, unless a different time is prescribed by this court or the district judge. The party seeking reconsideration shall file with the Clerk of this Court, and serve upon all parties, a written notice of the motion which shall specifically designate the order or part thereof to be reconsidered and the basis for the objection thereto. The district judge, upon timely motion, shall reconsider the magistrate judge's order and set aside any portion thereof found to be clearly erroneous in fact or contrary to law. The parties are further advised that the United States Court of Appeals for this Circuit has indicated that failure to comply with this rule shall preclude further appellate review. See Phinney v. Wentworth Douglas Hospital, 199 F.3d 1 (1st Cir. 1999); Sunview Condo. Ass'n v. Flexel Int'l, 116 F.3d 962 (1st Cir. 1997); Pagano v. Frank, 983 F.2d 343 (1st Cir. 1993).
